English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) Academy

ELPAC Academy is designed for teams of educators including classroom teachers, English Language Development (ELD) specialists, and educational professionals who play a role in supporting high-quality education for English learners.

Highlights of this one-day training include:

- How the ELPAC task types connect to the California 2012 English language development standards and classroom instruction.
- How educators play a critical role in advancing the English proficiency of English learners.
- How to develop formative and interim assessments based on the ELPAC task types.

Who Should Attend: Administrators, coaches, ELD coordinators, and teams of classroom teachers.
